TCA PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Over the past 18 months Council has made three commitments to members. Firstly last year we promised to go through a procedure to update the electoral provisions of the Constitution. That was completed, the changes adopted unanimously at a Special General Meeting and were in place for the election in late 2017. They seemed to work well and no hiccups were experienced.

We also promised to have a review of the office undertaken as well as a more general review of the Constitution.

The Office Review is now completed. We asked in the interests of transparency, that the report be prepared in two parts. The first would be more general observations which could be made public and read by members. The second part contains specific recommendations which are confidential for consideration by Council. By the time this is published the General Report will be posted on our website for members' information. What I can say is that the confidential section does not contain anything which not in the general report, it merely goes into details about personnel matters etc which obviously needs to be kept confidential.

The review of the Constitution has commenced and several meetings have taken place between our lawyer and a member with legal qualifications. It is hoped it will be completed later in the year so that member consultation can take place.

An ANKC Special Board Meeting took place and the summary has been posted on the ANKC website and published in this issue of the Gazette for your information.

The schedule for the CACIB Show has been published and I can inform stewards that a special information night will be held soon. Please watch the Facebook page for details. All members will be welcome to attend if you wish to be better informed. Hopefully an information night will be held in both the north and south.

In our search for new southern grounds, a member drew our attention to the ground adjacent to the EZ Works. We have looked at it and although we have not ruled it out, it would be difficult as there are no public facilities, limited parking and the area is already leased to Glenorchy Council.

The first show has been scheduled for Quercus Park. Congratulations to everyone involved with this project.

Unfortunately, recently we have lost another of our Life Members, Kaye Klap. Life Membership of the TCA is not something easily granted and people who achieve this award have provided years of service to the TCA. Kaye certainly achieved the requirements several times over. She will be greatly missed and Dogs Tasmania would like to express the deep condolences to her family and close friends. RIP Kaye.

David Sales, President.
