TCA PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hi Everyone

The Royal season is upon us, with Adelaide and Brisbane finished and we're in the middle of Melbourne as I write this column. We all wish everyone who crossed the ditch every success.

Then of course it will be our turn. It's great that finally the Launceston saga has been resolved and at this stage it looks like the entry for Hobart will be the best for several years. Of course the day after Hobart Specials is our first CACIB show and it will be interesting to see the number of interstateers turning up looking to win their fourth CACIB to become international champions.

Rex Lowe and the committee have been working exceptionally hard to ensure everything runs smoothly with a number of open sessions being run for stewards and exhibitors.

I had the privilege of attending the recent Spring Fair CACIB and talking to the Stewards, they reported that other than being slightly slower than an ordinary show because of the additional awards, the only real problem was the exhibitors (not all) who had made no effort to familiarise themselves with the different groups and breed allocations. The information is all in the last Gazette please have a look at it before you get to the show. In addition there will be another information night on 18 October 2018 specifically for stewards but anyone is welcome.

The ANKC Conference will be held the same weekend as Launceston Royal and the Council will discuss the agenda by telephone hook-up. I haven't as yet seen the agenda but no doubt there will be the usual array of the whacky and sensible. No doubt Kangals, Rottweilers, Border Collies and Belgian Shepherds will gain a guernsey.

The annual Conformation Judges' Exams have just been completed with five of the 12 candidates successful. Congratulations and commiserations to the candidates. This is slightly down on our usual pass rate but I'm pretty sure the examiners may have been a little tougher this year. The delays on the day were unacceptable and the committee will be looking at ways and means of improving that performance. Of course to make this weekend happen, a lot of people put in a lot of time and effort. We would like to thank the exhibitors who provided dogs and particularly thank Lois Connell and Fran Smith for their catering efforts.

Exhibitors will note that many of the mainland controls are introducing more and more rules to try and give the appearance of "fairness". No more dinners with the judges on Saturday night. I recently judged on the mainland where the judges were left to make their own arrangements for dinner. Being a small town there weren't a lot of options so I guess it wasn't too much of a surprise that our table was right next to the committee's table. In addition virtually every table was occupied by exhibitors.

Our Council has discussed this matter and believe in many ways these rules make things worse not better as everyone is checking to see who has broken a rule. In addition there are so many situations which you just can't make a rule for. Unfortunately there are just so many instances of bad show etiquette. Could I ask everyone to think how your behaviour looks to others. Don't enter under judges who are personal friends. Don't have personal conversations with judges until after they have finished judging. You know they type of thing I mean. The last thing Council wants to do is start introducing over the top rules but we will if we have to.

David Sales, President.

Danibull Banshee (IMP Slovakia)

Australia's first WireHaired Slovakian Pointer (ZORA)

Owned by Bill and Ingrid Albion, Grausturm Kennels, Tasmania

Wirehaired Slovakian Pointers (WHSP) also known as Slovakian Rough-Haired Pointers (SRHP) are founded on the Weimaraner from which it takes its colour and basic character traits but bred with harsh coated breeds including the Cesky Fousek and German Wirehaired Pointer. Primarily bred as an energetic and active hunting dog they come in two color forms grey and grey roan and resemble a bearded Weimaraner. For six years we have researched for the best genotype and phenotype to begin the foundation of this breed in Australia with the help of Classic Dream Kennels and Daniel Hrezig, Slovakian veterinarian. Zora, her mum and siblings are already winning many prizes in the showing.

Australian National Kennel Council Ltd

PRESS RELEASE

ROTTWEILER STATEMENT

Legally Docked Rottweilers

The recent advice from the FCI of amendments to the Rottweiler Standard has led to dissemination of flawed information and instructions on how the breed should be judged from sources other than ANKC. The attention of all Australian licenced Judges of Rottweilers is drawn to the following extract from FCI Regulation in particular the reference to discrimination.

"Dogs with docked tails are to be admitted in accordance with the legal regulations of their home countries and those of the country where the show takes place. The judging of docked and undocked dogs must be done without any discrimination and solely in accordance with the valid breed standard. The organizing country's regulations concerning showing docked dogs should be stated in the show schedule or on the entry forms as well as in the show regulations."

Further

The Chairperson of the National Breed Standards Coordination Group and the National Show Judges Training Committee, Marie Merchant advises Judges should be reminded that in accordance with the ANKC Prohibited Procedures Policy, Tail Docking is a restrictive procedure under State and Territory legislation. (Refer to individual State or Territory legislation for clarification), however legally docked dogs are eligible to be exhibited in Australia and are not to be penalized in the show ring.

Top Dog Event

The EO advised the meeting that the Conformation Dog of the Year was calculated at 50 points for the Best In Group and 25 for Runner Up In Group and that there was no information on how the performance disciplines calculated their winners.

RESOLVED: 'No further action be taken on the matter.'

Survey

R Lowe advised the meeting that he had been studying the result of the membership survey that was carried out in late 2017 and he had found that currently around 80% of exhibitors travelled compared to 98% in the past and that the decrease was due to the costs involved.

The meeting closed at 10.15pm.
