(b) To qualify for a Group Practical Examination in their first and subsequent Groups, the Trainee Judge must have attained a pass in the Group Theory Examination, completed the following Modules 2 and 3 and have submitted an enrolment form. (Amended 10/10)

(c) A Trainee Judge can only train for one (1) group initially. After passing their Initial group, a Trainee judge can train for no more than three (3) groups at any one time but may only undertake one (1) practical examination per year.

(d) A Trainee shall not be permitted to attempt more than (1) Theory Examination per Group in any Judges Education Program. (Added 10/13 – 5.6.4)

6.1.1 Module 1. Breed Lectures / Field Events / Seminars

With the exception of Distance Trainee Judges, Trainee Judges must attend a lecture on every breed in the Group at least once within the previous 2 years before applying for a Theory Examination. Trainee Judges are encouraged to attend any other Field Days and Seminars arranged by Dogs Tasmania. (Amended EAP 05/10, 10/10)

The breed lecture series is to be run by the controlling body over a minimum 12 months period with a lecture for every breed in the group to be presented over that time. The breed lecture shall be conducted by a person/s considered suitable for that breed by group co-ordinator

- (a) A Trainee Judge must be present for and participate in the entire lecture in order to be credited with attendance.
- (b) Should a Trainee judge miss any Breed Lecture, they must within 14 days, of the lecture, submit to Dogs Tasmania, a minimum one thousand (1,000) word essay on the Breeds dealt with in the missed lectures. Essays on a maximum of 25% of the breeds within the Group may be submitted over the period of the lecture series for missed lectures. (Amended 10/10)
- (c) In the event that a lecture for a particular breed is not offered, a written essay of a minimum one thousand word (1,000) word essay (as outlined in 6.1.5 [b]) on that breed will be required by the end of the Lecture Series. (Amended 10/10)
- (e) Failure to submit the essays, in accordance with 6.1.1 (b), (c) and (d), will render the Trainee ineligible to sit the Group Theory Examination in the current Training Program. (Amended 10/10)
- (f) The group co-ordinator will assess each assignment to ensure that it reaches a satisfactory standard. Where the co-ordinator assesses an assignment as unsatisfactory it shall be redone by the candidate so that it reaches a satisfactory standard. Failure to do so within the timetable framework will mean that the assignment will not be counted towards the candidates requirements.

6.1.2 Module 2. Practical Experience

Judge a minimum of fifty (50) dogs and additionally examine and critique a minimum fifty dogs (50) from the relevant Group. The breeds covered must be from, as wide a range as possible, but will include at least five (5) critiques from each of the five (5) Major Breeds as determined by the Member Body CJTC. This may be achieved by attending Field days or shows. All critiques to be countersigned on the day by a licensed judge for that breed who is not a Trainee Judge currently enrolled in the scheme and is, preferably, an Accredited Assessor, and who themselves examined the dogs critiqued. Critiques are only valid for 2 years.

Candidates are to submit 12-14 critiques which may include a maximum of five (5) full body photographs (per sub group) Group co-ordinators may nominate the photographs which are to be critiqued.

Judging may be in the form of hands on experience by placing dogs at open shows, sweepstakes or field days, but not at breed lectures. When a trainee judge judges an open show, parade or sweepstakes for the group to which they are aspiring, they shall complete critiques in the case of open shows and parades, the BIG, RUBIG, Puppy in Group and Baby Puppy in Group. In the case of sweepstakes, critiques for the first 4 placegetters shall be completed. (Amended 10/13 – 5.6.4) (Amended 10/14, 7.4.2)

Approved Distance Trainees may complete the critiques by downloading photos of dogs from the Internet. (Amended 10/10)

All critiques are to contain at least forty (40) words any may include a maximum of five (5)(per sub group) full body photographs.

6.1.3 Module 3 Breed/Group Specialty Show

Trainee Judges are to attend a minimum of one (1) Breed/Group Specialty Show for the Group or other numbers as set by Dogs Tasmania in each current training year. A written critique on five (5) dogs examined at each event is to be submitted to Dogs Tasmania within fourteen (14) days of the event. The critique is to be countersigned by a licensed judge(not a current trainee) for that Group present on the day and contain at least forty (40) words. Trainees in remote areas are to submit to Dogs Tasmania photos of five (5) dogs of five (5) specified breeds in the Group accompanied by critiques on each of the dogs. These may be obtained from the Internet. Mentors will be appointed (where possible) to countersign the critiques for the Trainees. (Amended EM#076 - 02/14)

6.1.4 Failure to complete any components of Modules 2 & 3, i.e. judge fifty (50) dogs and submission of the required number of critiques dated during the program for which the Trainee is enrolled will render the Trainee ineligible for a Practical examination. (Amended 10/10, 10/12 - 7.4.1)

6.1.5 Trainee Judges who are considered by Dogs Tasmania CJTC to reside a distance from the normal venue for lectures and theory examinations, that would pose a travelling risk, may apply to study through "Distance Training". This would involve a minimum 1,000 word essay, as set out in 6.1.1, as a substitute for any lecture not attended, and completion of Modules 2 and 3.

In addition, to obtain hands on experience Distant Trainee Judges must attend, each year, at least one (1) Field Day organised by the Group Leaders or judge two (2) Open Shows

(b) Essays, consisting of 1000 words, are to contain

1. History of the breed.

2. Purpose for which the breed was bred.

Example: The Brittany Spaniel was developed for hunting small birds in the region of Brittany in France where the terrain was rocky and well covered with dense bushes and scrubs - this explains why the breed has less angulation and a smaller head etc than other hunting, pointing or retrieving dogs.

3. Hallmarks of the breed

4. Explanations of how these hallmarks relate to the purpose for which the breed was developed. (Refer Item 2)

5. A list of any serious faults in the breed which may influence the awarding of a challenge

Example: In Staffordshire Bull Terriers, black and tan or liver colour is highly undesirable

6. A list of books and/or websites which have been found useful.

7. Write a short critique on your ideal example of the breed as pictured in your mind.

Failure to submit the essays, in accordance with 6.1.5, will render the Trainee ineligible to sit the Group Theory Examination in the current Training Program.

6.1.6 Only members who have applied to the TCA Inc by the required date for inclusion in the current year's Training Program and who fulfil all requirements for admission to the scheme to the satisfaction of TCA Inc will be permitted to sit for the scheduled Examinations. After obtaining the first Group Trainee Judges may apply for two (2) Open Show Licences each year and must nominate which Group they intend following through to Championship level. A maximum of three (3) open show groups may be held at any one time.. See 6.1 ©

6.1.7 A Trainee must apply to sit for and pay the prescribed fee before undertaking any Examination.

6.1.8 The Training Scheme is composed of lectures, Sub Group Theory Exams, Parades, Open Shows, competitions, field days, and Stewarding and Practical Examinations.

6.1.9 Training scheme requirements must be completed to the satisfaction of the TCA Inc CJTC and the TCA Inc Council.

6.1.10 Stewarding: Prior to attempting any Practical Examination Trainee Judges must be approved members of the TCA Inc Stewards Panel and must undertake a minimum of fifteen (15) hours Stewarding at Championship Shows including Stewarding for at least five (5) complete Groups in the current training year, the hours must be completed by 29 August each year. This requirement is in addition to the twenty (20) hours of Stewarding prior to making application to join the Conformation Judges Training Scheme and must be fulfilled in Tasmania unless the Trainee Judge has transferred from another Member Body. Stewarding hours will not be counted unless the candidate has a signed stewarding contract completed before the show attached to the stewarding hours form.

6.1.11 Number of Dogs Judged (Championship Practical Examinations only): Refer 6.1.2

Stewarding hours and dog numbers must be submitted by the Trainees.

6.1.12 Practical Examination: The Practical Examinations for Championship Show Licences will be held in September each year.

6.1.13 Candidates must not conduct any kennel visits, examine any dogs or conduct any lectures or discussions with owner/breeders during the 14 days immediately prior to the first day of the practical examination. A breach of this requirement will result in the candidate being ineligible to sit for the practical exam and if the examination has already been completed will result in the the examination being failed.

7. Single Breed Training Program

7.1. To enrol in the Single Breed Training Program an Aspiring Judge must:

7.1.1 Comply with Regulation 4.1.1.

7.1.2 Submit a minimum of a one thousand (1,000) word illustrated essay on the relevant breed which is to contain a history and description of the breed, its purpose and all relevant requirements contained in the Breed Standard and attend the breed lecture offered in the Training Program at the time of applying for the Theory Examination.

The essay is subject to approval of the CJTC as conforming with the conditions of this clause and achieving the required level of competency. (Amended 10/10)

Where conducted, attend, (at the discretion of Dogs Tasmania) the breed club's Open and Championship Show, the Group club's Open and Championship Show and the breed judging at an approved major Show. i.e.: Royal Show or the major Non Royal Show in each State.

7.1.3 To qualify for a Single Breed Theory Examination the Trainee Judge must have completed and met the requirements of 7.1.2 above and have submitted an enrolment form.

7.1.4 To qualify for a Single Breed Practical Examination the Trainee Judge must have attained a pass in the Single Breed Theory Examination and have submitted an enrolment form.

7.2 Unless otherwise determined, at the discretion of Dogs Tasmania, a practical examination for a single breed license shall consist of one (1) class of a minimum of five (5) dogs over the age of six (6) months, and one (1) class of a minimum of five (5) bitches over the age of six (6) months, and the Trainee Judge will be required to place the classes and select a Best of Breed and a Runner Up to Best of Breed. The Trainee must not be examined on dogs they own or co-own.

7.3 Upon passing the Single Breed Practical Examination, the Trainee Judge shall be listed as an ANKC Championship Show Judge for that breed.

7.4 Where a Trainee Judge fails a Single Breed Practical Examination, that person shall not be required to obtain additional practical experience to be eligible for another examination the following year, providing he/she submits an enrolment form and the examination is for the breed on which the applicant previously failed.

7.5 A Trainee Judge may only undertake one (1) Single Breed Practical Examination per calendar year.

8. Appointment of Assessors.

To be appointed by the Conformation Judges Training Committee, an Assessor must not be a Trainee Judge in the current Judges Training Program and must;

8.1 Hold a Certificate of Approval issued under the ANKC Accreditation Program stating that the Assessor has completed the competency training.

8.2 Have held an ANKC Breed or Group Licence for a minimum of five (5) years for the Group or Breed being used in the examination.

8.3 Have judged the Group or Breed being used in the examination on at least three (3) occasions.

9. Theory Examinations

9.1 The Group Theory Examination is one examination consisting of four parts. The breeds in each Group will be divided into four Sub-groups and each part of the theory examination will relate to a Sub-group. In order to pass the theory examination, a candidate must achieve a mark of 75% in each part of the examination. A candidate may not sit for a Practical Examination in a Group until such time as the Theory Examination has been passed. Candidates will be advised of their result in each examination as soon as practicable after the exam. Candidates who fail to achieve the 75% pass mark in any of the theory sub group examinations may at their discretion continue to participate in the training scheme recognising they will not be permitted to sit for the practical examination. Where a candidate has failed the theory examination, passes in any part of that examination will not be carried forward to subsequent years.

9.2 A Trainee Judge who has failed a theory examination may request a remark of their paper at a charge to be determined by TCA Inc. . Such requests are to be in writing within 14 days of advice of the result of the paper. Any candidate who achieves 73-74 % will receive andf automatic remark at no charge. Two (2) Examiners appointed by the Chairman of the Dogs Tasmania CJTC to separately remark the paper. The Examiners shall not be the original markers of the paper concerned.

9.3 Should a Trainee Judge not attain a pass in the Group Theory Examination, to progress, they will be required to enrol in the next available or other future Judges Education Program.

9.4 Trainee Judges must undertake the Theory Examination for a Group within 3 years of enrolling for that Group. They must also pass within five (5) attempts. If either of the previous criteria is not met then they may not re-sit that examination for a period of two (2) years.
